

EXAMINATIONS FOR STATE CERTIFICATES

Will Begin Under Direction of Supt. Holloway Today.

APPLICATIONS ARE NUMEROUS

The Examination Will Embrace State Certificates and Certificates for Primary Work—Miss Rowena Longmire Will Assist.

Hon. W. M. Holloway, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon from Tallahassee, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Idella.

Prof. Holloway came for the purpose of conducting the examination of applicants for State teachers' certificates, and certificates for primary work. He will be assisted in the examination for primary certificates by Miss Rowena Longmire, principal of the primary department of the University Normal.

The examination will be open to all teachers throughout the State who desire to apply, and several are here now for that purpose. The examination will be conducted in the court house, and indications are that there will be a good crowd of applicants.

Prof. Holloway is among the friends of the former home, all of whom are glad to see him.

ELKS WILL BE HERE.

Will Come From All Quarters With Antlers Trimmed For Work.

The Elks will be pouring in from every section of the State today, for there will be "something doing" in Gainesville, and from what has been said every Elk will have his antlers in proper trim for the occasion.

Gainesville Lodge No. 990 will be instituted by Ocala lodge, under direction of District Deputy J. B. Burbridge of Jacksonville. Mr. Burbridge will be accompanied by several members of the Jacksonville lodge, and Elks from various sections of the State have promised themselves and friends to be on hand upon this festive occasion.

Inasmuch as there will be enough work to keep the visitors busy for several hours, they will get busy at 4 o'clock, immediately after the arrival of the train from Ocala.

The institution will conclude with a banquet at the Brown House, where the newly initiated members may talk together over their experiences.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

Nineteen New Cases Reported Up to Noon Yesterday.

New Orleans, August 29.—Number of new cases reported up to noon today was nineteen; number of deaths was three; total cases to date, 1,807; total deaths, 263.

There is some fear of trouble if the isolation to depopulate all towns where fever appears is enforced. New Orleans merchants fear it might induce people to leave town and other communities not to receive any freight.

At Other Places.

There are 200 infected negroes at New Providence, La.

Gainesville, Miss., is in a panic and precautions are needed.

St. Louis has quarantined against Mississippi and demands a strict enforcement.

Charges will be filed against Surgeon General of New Orleans for reporting infection at Memphis.

REAL ESTATE STILL MOVES.

The James Proud Place, North Gainesville, Sold to J. I. Prevatt.

Real estate continues lively in this city. Several important transfers have been made recently, among these being the transfer from M. B. Saunders to J. I. Prevatt of the James Proud place, North Gainesville, comprising thirty-five acres of as good land as can be found in the county, with comfortable houses, barns, etc., and a spring of as pure water as can be found in the South.

Mr. Prevatt has been living on the place for about a year.

Attention, P. O. S. of A.

Shortage at Dispensaries.

Charleston, S. C., August 29.—Inspector Floyd returns to Charleston this week to resume his investigation of the accounts and stock of the dispensaries, his trip last week having found one of the four places examined to be short nearly $3,000. There are six whisky and three beer dispensaries to be examined and reports of other shortages are expected. The alleged shortage has attracted attention on account of the important disclosures which have been made by the commission of the legislature which recently met at Spartanburg and then at Columbia.

Manila, August 29.—A dispatch received here this morning reported the arrival of the transport Logan at Olingapo. The Logan was scheduled to arrive at this port this morning came in on time. Olingapo is a harbor in Subig bay on the southeast coast of Luzon, within a short sail of Manila. It is the naval base of the American Philippine squadron.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 124 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run-down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good, and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." J. W. M. Cullum & Co.

Horrible Heroism.

One of the Revolution's gunners was standing by his gun as the ship sheered abreast of De Grasse's flag ship. The gunner was all ready, just going to fire, when a shot came in at the port and took his leg off at the knee. As quick as thought the man pulled off his neckcloth and tied his leg above the stump. The next instant he seized his shot off limb and thrust it into the muzzle of the gun, which went off two seconds later. "My foot," shouted the man exultantly, "is the first to board the Ville de Paris."—Fraser's "Famous Fighters."

A Famous Beauty.

Mme. de Remusat had features so perfect that her contemporaries said she was worthy to sit as a model for a Greek goddess. The flesh of her face closely resembled alabaster, and yet she was not pale and did not give the impression of being in delicate health. Her beauty attracted universal attention to her, no matter where she went, and even in old age she retained most of her good looks.

Simple.

Simple. They are going to be married? Why I didn't know they were engaged. Smarter. Well, you see, there are so many engagements broken now days that they thought they wouldn't get engaged—just simply married.—London Answers

Tar and Feathers.

"The Greek was the first to apply tar and feathers to the body of an offender," said a doctor. "Then, as now, this punishment of the victim was considered one of the worst possible. In fact, tarring and feathering was considered a greater punishment than hanging. It was a living punishment of the most repulsive kind. Aerating of the blood to a certain extent through the skin takes place, and in the naked skin insures this is a very important part of the aerating process. In man the skin does about one-thirtieth part of the work, while the lungs do the rest. It has been demonstrated that frogs live but a few hours after having been given a coat of varnish. A man that is so unfortunate as to receive a coat of tar and feathers so soon as freed from his persecutors seeks to free himself from the recently applied tar. A man with good kidneys could endure longer such an application than one suffering from an attack of any disease affecting the kidneys. Death might follow his suffering. The skin is a great absorbent agent."

Democracy on Warships.

Visitors to the big warships in the navy yard are astonished at the way the men address their officers with the title of "Mr." Everybody below the grade of captain on the ship is addressed with a simple "Mr." This is to save time, as commander, lieutenant commander, lieutenant and midshipman require too much time to enunciate. A national guard officer of rank below that of major visiting the yard the other day was surprised to hear a lieutenant commander referred to as "Mr." The very thought of such a thing happening to him in the armory made him almost shiver. "Ah," said he, "I see why it is. The officers are on board day after day, while we guard officers are in the armory only now and then. Consequently, we can stand a little waste of time in hearing our titles uttered."—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Slit in the Coat Lapel.

A unique and beautiful custom among the orthodox Jews is directly responsible for the angular slit in the lapel of the modern coat. The Jew when death visits his household takes a knife and, cutting the lapel, murmurs in Yiddish: "O God, I accept thy judgment." This custom has come down from antiquity and is known as "kree" (rending the garments). The cutting of "kree" is associated with such solemn and religious obligations that many a stern Hebrew father, as a punishment for a son or daughter who marries out of the faith, will rend his garment as a token of the death of such a child. The act is emblematic of the profoundest grief, but also has its comforting influence, for it accepts with the resignation of the typical religious Jew the will of the Almighty.

A Story With a Moral.

A prominent New York banker was dilating on the dangers of deceit. By way of illustration, he told of a society woman who saw in a jeweler's window a collar of pearls that she wanted. She inquired the price and was told $5,000. She gave her check for $3,000, saying she would send her husband to see the pearls, but the jeweler was to tell him they cost only $3,000. The storekeeper was familiar with that sort of game and agreed. The husband came to see the pearls, and that evening told his wife he had bought them. His wife delightedly asked if he had brought home the collar, whereupon he replied: "No, dear, I had it sent to my mother. You know, it is her birthday tomorrow."

The Kind You Have Always Bought

The Blue Scarecrow.

The farmer's scarecrows were all garbed in blue. "A blue scarecrow," said the man, "does more good than ten ordinary ones, for birds hate blue and fear blue as you and I hate and fear typhoid and consumption. A professor pointed out to me that blue was the thing for birds. At first I was unbelieving but I experimented and found that professor to be right." Philadelphia Bulletin.

Laughter.

Spontaneous happy laughter tells all ways of goodness, and the man who never laughs must not blame his fellows if they think there is something wrong with his life, something dark within. If the streams which flow out are only bitter, the fountains can not be sweet.

MOTHERHOOD is the reward nature bestows upon the worthy womanhood. Which we certainly have been sapped by disease cannot safely give birth to children. In pregnancy and childbirth weakness of the mother is a source of pain and agony she suffers.

This great medicine drives out every vestige of inflammation and weakness, and gives tone and strength to the delicate organs which mature the child. The pains of pregnancy are banished by Wine of Cardui, and miscarriages, which blast so many fond mother's hopes, are prevented. Flooding, which so often occurs after childbirth, is corrected when Wine of Cardui is used during pregnancy.

Wine of Cardui makes healthy babies, because, during the months of pregnancy, the mother is able to give them necessary vitality and strength.

With these facts presented to American women no expectant mother should be satisfied without the re-inforcement that Wine of Cardui will give her. Every mother should be able to treat herself in her home with this valuable medicine.

Wine of Cardui can be secured from any druggist at $1.00 a bottle.

Polycarp, N. C., Jan. 11, 1902

I am the mother of seven children and while in pregnancy with the first six suffered untold misery until they were born. One month before the seventh was born I began to take a bottle of Wine of Cardui, which gave me relief after taking three doses. I used the remainder of the bottle until the birth of the child, and was stouter in three days after the birth than I was in a month after the birth of either of the first six. I am 29 years old.
